Entertainment Program

SHOREHAM HOTEL

WASHINGTON, D. C.

October 7-12, 1972

WELCOME N.T.A.

Dear Conferee and Delegate:

It is with great pleasure and pride that I welcome the 65th Annual Conference on Taxation to Washington, D. C. The Local Arrangements Committee and the National Capital Area Host Committee extend to you personally a greeting of the warmest hospitality.

As local hosts we consider it our primary responsibility to provide for your comfort, enjoyment and entertainment as our honored guests. With this in mind, we have planned a social and cultural program which is intended to supplement the educational and professional benefits of the Conference program sessions and add to the total enrichment of your visit.

In addition to our planned sightseeing and other social functions, we encourage you to use your free time to explore the many sights and sounds of Washington, D. C. and vicinity. Our City is a living symbol of our Nation's history and democratic heritage. It is also one of the world's truly international cities and abounds in fine shops and restaurants.

We of the Local Arrangements Committee are here to assist you in every way possible. We encourage you to attend our events and to use our hospitality and information services. Best wishes to you for a happy, successful and rewarding conference.

Sincerely,
