

NATIONAL TAX ASSOCIATION

The leading association of tax professionals – dedicated to advancing understanding of the theory and practice of taxation

Founded 1907
www.ntanet.org

The National Tax Association

is the world's most prestigious professional tax organization.

NTA is the premier forum for:

- Debating complex and controversial public finance issues
- Testing new tax theories, practices, and policies
- Disseminating the highest quality impartial, nonpartisan research

NTA brings together an unparalleled diversity of interests and experts in a broad-based membership of government, corporate, academic, and independent tax professionals. No other association offers such a rich mix of professors and other scholars, legislators and administrators, lawyers and accountants, taxpayer representatives, students, and interested citizens.

NTA carries out its educational purpose through its quarterly National Tax Journal and other publications, and by sponsoring conferences, symposiums, and study committees.

Membership in the National Tax Association brings you

National Tax Journal—Respected worldwide as the premier scholarly journal in the field of taxation and public finance.

Annual Conference on Taxation—Sharing ideas on current and emerging public finance issues, drawing on the most advanced thinking and research by NTA members and other colleagues. The Proceedings volume provides a valuable and comprehensive research compendium as well as a historical resource on a wide range of fiscal topics.

Spring Symposium—In Washington DC, focusing on important current tax issues. The papers are published in the September issue of the National Tax Journal.

Annual Program on Appraisal for Ad Valorem Taxation of Communication, Energy and Transportation Properties—A week-long program co-sponsored with Wichita State University.

Special Conferences and Symposiums—Occasional meetings on specific tax issues, such as taxation of telecommunications and electronic commerce, state taxation of business, sales taxes, and state and local fiscal equalization.

Committees of the Association—Members may participate in standing committees, each specializing in a particular area of public finance. Each committee generally plans a session for the Annual Conference on Taxation.

The enormous public benefit that can come from sound tax policy and wise administration is a prime reason for belonging to NTA.

Members cite a sense of responsibility to their profession and the public at large as the most compelling reason to belong to NTA.

The National Tax Association invites you to join your colleagues in the tax community as we work to foster understanding of the complex public finance system through impartial exchange of information, research, and divergent viewpoints.

NTA members have a role in all aspects of the Association's professional activities and programs.

- Work with other members in setting the agenda for conferences and seminars.
- Participate in the annual Spring Symposium and the Conference on Taxation.
- Join a standing committee.
- Contribute to Association publications.

The National Tax Association is a nonpolitical, non-partisan 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization whose purpose is to foster study and discussion of complex and controversial issues in tax theory, practice, and policy, and other aspects of public finance. NTA does not promote any particular tax program or policy.
